Rudimentary pre-keyboard skills such as pitch matching, beat competency, ensemble development and music notation are taught using themes taken from your child's home environment and natural surroundings. Through pattern echoing, the children will build a vocabulary of musical phrases they can recognize aurally and visually, leading to an understanding of musical notation. An instrumental demo each semester is included.

Music Makers: World/Keyboard, Year I

Ages 5 & 6, parent attends last 10 minutes of class

60 minutes

A delightfully creative approach that combines music & movement with keyboard learning for children who are not quite ready for traditional piano lessons. While exploring the music, dances and stories of cultures around the world, children will also be following a very sequential approach to learning piano skills. Activities that nurture their overall development include singing, drumming, dancing and ensemble playing. Concepts are first heard and sung, then transferred to the keyboard, fostering the ear-hand connection. As a final step on the pathway to music literacy, this beginning keyboard class is designed to teach the children to play the songs they've been hearing, singing, and dancing to throughout the years. An instrumental demo by a professional musician is included. 30 weeks

ENROLLMENT: Entire academic year
TUITION: $282 per 15-week semester
MATERIALS: $105/year. Children will receive 2 folders each including a CD, map, song pages, and notation games. Children will also receive Keyboard Book 1, including 2 CDs and notation games plus a Parent Handbook.

Young Musicians I & II: featuring Kindermusik® for the Young Child

Year II: For children 6 & 7 years, parent/caregiver attends last 10 minutes of class. Children must have completed Year I or be in First Grade.

60 minutes

Your budding musician will learn the necessary basics for future music classes, ensembles or private study in this four-semester sequential curriculum. In a pressure-free, developmentally appropriate environment, children explore families of the orchestra, prominent composers and multicultural music while learning to play glockenspiel, dulcimer and recorder. The program uses singing, ear-training, guided listening, creative and structured movement, ensemble work and learning musical notation to nurture comprehensive musicianship. An instrument demonstration by a professional musician is included each year.

ENROLLMENT: Entire academic year
TUITION: $282 per 15-week semester
MATERIALS: $75 for initial semester (instrument, folder, songbook, CD, game bag) $52 for second semester.

Frequently Asked Questions

ATTENDANCE

What should I do if my child is sick?

Please help keep our school healthy by staying home if your child is sick! Call the Front Desk to let us know of your absence. In some cases, it may be feasible to attend class at a different day or time if there is space. Make-up classes can only be arranged through your teacher on an individual basis; they are not handled by the office staff.

What if we need to miss a class for some other reason?

Regular attendance is expected of all students, so please make every effort to attend. If you must miss a class, please be courteous and let your teacher know in advance.

What if the teacher is absent?

If your teacher is ill, the Music School will make every attempt to find a substitute rather than cancel class. Any class missed due to teacher absence will be made up.

How will I know if the school is closed for snow?

An announcement will be posted on the school's website and voicemail, or tune in to one of the following stations:

Wilmington

WILM 1450 AM
WDEL 1150 AM
WSTW 93.7 FM
WJBR 99.5 FM
KYW 1060 AM

SIBLINGS

In order for all families to enjoy classes, please follow these guidelines:

Musical Babies: No siblings are allowed so that parent/caregiver can devote this time to the enrolled child without interruption.

Musical Toddlers, Our Time & Cycle

of Seasons: Younger siblings are allowed in the class if they are not mobile. Infants may sit in seats or strollers but parents/caregivers are asked to leave with the child immediately if he/she should become fussy or disruptive. No older siblings please.

Musical Explorers, Music Makers & Young Musicians Program:

Siblings are welcome to join parents/caregivers for "sharing time" at the end of class. They must remain with the adult and should be taken from the room if their behavior interferes with class activities.

Discounts for multi-child families! When you register more than 1 child for our EC classes, each additional child from the same family will enjoy a $10 discount.*

MATERIALS

Do I need to purchase materials?

Yes! The materials are an essential part of the curriculum and allow your child to get the most out of the class. Please submit your materials order form with your registration form.

What is the purpose of the home materials?

Home materials help ensure that class isn't your only "music time" during the week! The most important times of musical growth for children are when they explore and experiment with music on their own. With the home materials, parents and children can sing songs, read and experiment with activities learned in class. Older students may need assistance completing a home activity and will want to share their music-making with family and friends. For children in the Young Musicians Program, parental involvement at home is crucial to reap the full benefits of the curriculum.

*A $5 materials late fee will be added to your account for students joining after week 4 of current semester.

REGISTRATION & ENROLLMENT

How long do classes run?

Early Childhood enrollment is for the entire academic year unless otherwise indicated in class descriptions. Summer camps run in June and July.

When can I register?

Registration is ongoing throughout the academic year and tuition will be prorated as applicable. Summer registration typically begins in March; academic year registration begins in May for returning students or June for new students.

BILLING & DISCONTINUANCE

What fees do I need to pay to register?

A $75 nonrefundable deposit is due each year when you submit your registration form and will be applied to charges on your bill, including the annual registration fee ($35 for each student or $25 for a second student in the same family) and tuition.

When is tuition due?

Bills are mailed three weeks prior to the start of each semester and are payable by the beginning of the term. Balances must be paid in full prior to registering for a new year or for additional classes.

Does the school offer financial aid?

Yes! Financial Aid Forms are available from the Front Desk and aid is awarded subject to availability of funds.

What if I want to stop taking a class?

For classes that run for the entire academic year, you may only discontinue without penalty between the fall and spring semesters. Contact the Registrar to complete and sign a Discontinuance Form. Notice to the teacher is not sufficient. If you stop classes prior to the end of a semester, you are still liable for the full semester's tuition.

Who should I call if I have a question about my bill?

Contact the Business Office at 302-762-1132, ext. 17, for any questions about billing, tuition or financial aid.

Helpful Hints & Guidelines

- ★ Please be on time. It can be upsetting for a child to arrive once class has started.
- ★ Turn off cell phones.
- ★ Make sure your child has the opportunity to use the bathroom before coming to class.
- ★ Do not bring food, drink or toys to class. We want your child to interact with the materials we are using in class. Other children are also distracted by things they see but cannot have. Support each other by leaving these things outside of the classroom.
- ★ Dress in comfortable clothes. This applies to all children and to any adults who are participating in classes.
- ★ Be a model of musical behavior for your child. Your participation in class or "sharing time" lets your child know you value the experience.
- ★ If your child becomes upset or disruptive during class, try leaving the room for a moment until she/he calms down and then return to the class.
- ★ Please refrain from having conversations with other parents during music time to avoid disrupting and distracting others. Use class time to concentrate on the activity you are sharing with your child and arrange for social time with friends after class.

Family Concerts

Designed to engage even the youngest children, these musical adventures entertain the entire family and provide family-friendly opportunities for children to experience the magic of live music. Each Early Childhood student receives two complimentary tickets to a Music School Family Concert of your choice. Concert season details will be available in September.

Previous concerts have included performances of Saint-Saëns' "Carnival of the Animals," Prokofiev's "Peter and the Wolf" and Ridout's "Ferdinand the Bull," as well as the musically narrated stories of "Webster the Musical Spider" and "Einstein's Mozart: Two Geniuses."

Birthday Parties

The Music School of Delaware's Wilmington Branch is the ideal place to host your child's next birthday celebration. We know that each year is a milestone for your young child. You want to enjoy that moment and not be overwhelmed with decisions concerning how to celebrate. Early Childhood birthday parties are appropriate for children ages 1 to 7. We host birthday parties on weekdays (during business hours) and Saturdays (12:00-4:00 p.m. only), but not during the music class schedule. Future Music Study Wondering how Early Childhood music will help your child down the road? Music and movement classes develop your child's physical and mental aptitude for future music study—providing a solid foundation for singing, playing an instrument or dancing.

SINGING: The singing voice is a child's first instrument, and children should have significant exposure to singing when they are young to foster proper vocal development. EC classes involve frequent singing, most of it unaccompanied, which teaches children to differentiate sounds and helps develop the ear. Echoing simple melodic patterns with babies parallels language development, connecting neurons in the brain that would otherwise remain dormant. By progressing to simple songs and scale patterns, students eventually learn to read and sing notes on the staff. Developing these singing skills and strengthening the vocal muscle mean children are better prepared for future choir or private study experience.

INSTRUMENTS: Exposure to a variety of age-appropriate instruments throughout the EC curriculum provides children with fun and successful music experiences from which they can easily grow into other instruments. Through gross-motor activities, children gain control of their bodies and develop graceful, rhythmic movements which they can later use to express music on an instrument. In addition, through finger plays and progressively smaller mallet use, children refine the fine-motor finger control necessary for instrument playing. Focused listening and singing activities help to develop tonal memory while rhythm patterns and ensemble work help to internalize rhythm. In addition, professional musicians provide instrument demonstrations where children have opportunities to try instruments that they might want to study themselves one day.

DANCE: Have you ever noticed how young children instinctively move to music? Throughout the EC curriculum, children are introduced to a variety of styles of music for free dance. Circle dances are introduced during baby and toddler classes, progressing to more structured dances and eventually dances of other cultures, from classical minuets to polkas to traditional African dances. Fine and gross motor skills are enhanced through movement activities, instrument playing and games. Children learn simple dance steps in ballet, jazz and tap as we explore the rhythms, meter and history behind each dance style. Future dancers are cultivated as children move with growing expressiveness and learn increasingly complex dances.
